Do you have a golden voice, or would you like to gild it? Then join Orlando Chamber Choir for its summer workshop, directed by James Weeks. We will rehearse and polish aurous compositions from the Spanish Golden Age including resplendent large-scale works by Cristóbal de Morales, Francisco Guerrero and Tomás Luis de Victoria. You'll need shades just to read the music! The intervals will be enriched with a selection of homemade Orlandian cakes which are gold-standard too.

All choral singers are welcome but pre-booking is essential and good sight-reading skills are a prerequisite.

Tickets cost £30, concessions £25, including scores, interval drinks and cake. Tickets are available by advance booking only from 01223 247 027 or online via
